A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs. R. S. Fitzgerald near Greenbark, December 12, 1906 at 12 o'clock when Miss Cleffie M. Fitzgerald was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Nottingham. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the bride, Rev. H. L. Burr. In the presence of a few friends and relatives. After the ceremony all repaired to the dining room and partook of a beautiful dinner. The bride is a popular young lady of the Oak Grove neighborhood. The groom is a well to do farmer living near Dunmore where the happy couple will make their future home. A host of friends wishes them much happiness in their journey through life.

Excerpt from

4/23/1897 Biographic notes on William Nottingham

Harvey Nottingham, another son of William Nottingham Jr and Mary Arbogast, daughter of Adam Arbogast married Miss Caroline Swink, whose parents came from the Valley of Virginia in her early youth. He began in the woods, and in the course of years, after industrious toil, these persons gathered about them the comforts of a charming house on the hillside facing the rising sun. The 2 brothers Harvey and Addison lived on adjoining farms and here one can find an illustration of what may be realized by prudence and industry in the way of a comfortable competency.

Letter

Dear Editor,

I am working on a family history of the Craig family of Nicholas County, W. Va. The first member of this family to settle in Nicholas was Robert Craig who arrived there in 1837, coming from Greenbrier County. His father, also named Robert, died in Greenbrier in 1804 and his will was recorded in Lewisburg in October, 1804.

I wish to contact other descendants of the Robert Craig who died in Greenbrier. He had 7 daughters besides the son Robert. The names of the daughters were:

Mary Craig married Robert Stephens

Agnes Craig married William Warwick

Sarah Craig married George Reader (Rader)

Jane Craig married Joseph Wolfenbarger

Margaret Craig married David McCue

Elizabeth Craig married Andrew Warwick

Rebecca Craig married John Wolfenbarger

I think some of the descendants of these couples will be living in the area served by "The Pocatentes Times". It will be appreciated if you will publish this letter as I am hoping that one or more of the descendants of Robert Craig will contact me.

Thank you,

James C. Coleman

In memoriam

In the 89th year of her age, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Brown Gum near Cass on February 9, 1907 Mrs. Nancy Wilfong passed from the scenes of this life through the mystic vale of death, to the realms of song and praise. She was the wife of Daniel Wilfong who preceded her to the silent resting place at the Wanless graveyard several years ago. She was the mother of 3 children - George who preceded her some years ago; Lizzie now Mrs. Brown Gum, and Miss Katie. She leaves besides her two daughters, one brother and one sister to mourn her loss. She was a faithful member of the Methodist Church. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Baine.

Oh, once again on a starry eve,
The Angel of Death has come,
To summon in quiet peaceful tone,
And lead the wanderer home.

This careworn child of God,
Weary, faithful one
Rest, O Pilgrim, thy tired feet;
Thy earthly race is run.

Told on her bosom those dear white hands
Their work on earth is done
She has received the golden Lure and wears the Starry Crown.
